

RESOLUTION # 14-123

RESOLUTION OF THE VENTURA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
EXTENDING PROCLAMATION OF LOCAL EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, Government Code section 8630 authorizes and empowers the County of Ventura Board of Supervisors to proclaim the existence of a local emergency when conditions of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property exist in the County of Ventura;

WHEREAS, by Resolution dated December 2, 2014, the County of Ventura Board of Supervisors proclaimed the existence of a local emergency in an area near Santa Paula, California, as a result of a hazardous materials release and exposure on November 18, 2014, that harmed dozens of people and prompted an evacuation of the area; and

WHEREAS, Government Code section 8630 requires the Board of Supervisors to review the need for continuing the local emergency at least once every 30 days until the Board of Supervisors terminates the local emergency; and

WHEREAS, the Sheriff of Ventura County, acting as the County Director of Emergency Services, has informed the Board of Supervisors that there continues to exist within the County of Ventura a condition of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property in the area of Santa Paula where the hazardous materials release and exposure took place.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HEREBY RESOLVES, DECLARES AND PROCLAIMS THAT:

A local emergency continues to exist within the County of Ventura in the area near Santa Paula due to a hazardous materials release and exposure.

This confirmation and continuance of the proclamation of local emergency shall be reviewed by the Board of Supervisors at least every 30 days until terminated to determine the need for continuing the local emergency, and termination of the local emergency shall be proclaimed by the Board at the earliest possible date that conditions warrant.

On motion by Supervisor Parks, seconded by Supervisor Foy, the foregoing resolution was passed and adopted on December 16, 2014.

Dated: December 16, 2014
